In order to strengthen our teams, Kuenz Austria is searching for a dynamic personality to fill the following position.

Currently we are looking for:

DATA ENGINEER, FULL TIME (M/F)

DUTIES

- You conduct data analyses in behalf of our internal departments and international customers.
- You perform causal research to optimize our products.
- You are responsible for documenting your work.
- For those analysis you are applying machine learning methods if applicable.

REQUIREMENTS

- You have completed your studies in computer science, mechanical engineering, mechatronics or electrical engineering.
- You have a good command in programming with R or Python.
- You bring profound knowledge of databases (SQL).
- You convince with analytical thinking, independent and responsible working methods.

OUR COMMITMENT

- We are technology leader in our industry. Many of our products are unique.
- You work in an international company with a familiar atmosphere.
- We are open for new ideas. Only those who try the impossible will achieve the possible.
- If you like professional variety and challenges, then this is the right place for you.
- Flexibility is our daily routine. You use our flextime model and also the possibility to work from home.

Do you have further questions?

Please contact Mrs. Daria Bläsi:
+43 5574 / 6883 - 465.

Sounds interesting to you?

We are looking forward to your application via our homepage:
https://www.kuenz.com/de/karriere/jobs/

We offer a competitive salary and benefits according to experiences and skills.

Further News you will find here: