Internship Corporate Venture Building (m/f/d)*

Location
Munich

Let’s shape the future together – join our Corporate Venture Building Team at Munich Re!

We are looking for an open-minded, curious, and engaged intern to support us in identifying new business model ideas and developing them into new corporate startups targeting the insurance industry and beyond.

Our mission is to build a portfolio of different corporate ventures for Munich Re based on a best-in-class venture building process in order to meet new demands, leverage opportunities of upcoming technologies, and actively shape emerging markets and industries. Our innovation playing fields include, among others, climate and energy, cyber risks, insurtech, AI, mobility and IoT.

To unearth new trends and find the right interdisciplinary partners for our innovation journey, we operate innovation labs around the globe and work together with our innovation scouts in the Silicon Valley and Tel Aviv.

If you want to experience venture building hands-on, join our team as an intern (5-6 months) to cut business diamonds out of rough ideas. We also have a number of part-time positions for motivated students who are keen to continue working for us after a full-time internship and pursue their studies at the same time.

Your job

- Support innovation ventures in different phases of the venture building process, e.g., in market research, pain point and customer validation, competitor as well as trend analysis
- Drive the development of idea generation and support ideation projects
- Learn about current and future market trends within the areas of climate and energy, cyber risks, insurtech, mobility and IoT
- Advocate new trends in terms of technology, methodology and strategy
- Assist in the preparation of pitches for potential customers, partners and internal stakeholders

Your profile

- Current master’s student with an above-average bachelor’s degree and a keen interest in the fields of innovation, entrepreneurship, (re-)insurance and digitization
- Initial practical experience with a startup, in corporate innovation management, or management consulting
- Understanding of innovation management methodologies and the development of digital/business models
- High affinity with technical topics
- Creativity, openness, communication skills and eagerness to join an international and interdisciplinary team
- Fluency in spoken and written English, sound working knowledge of Microsoft Office applications

About us

As the world’s leading reinsurance company with more than 11,000 employees at over 50 locations, Munich Re introduces a paradigm shift in the way you think about insurance. By turning uncertainty into a manageable risk we enable fundamental change. Join us working on topics today that will concern society tomorrow, whether that be climate change, major construction projects, medical risk assessment or even space travel.

Together we embrace a culture where multiskilled teams dare to think big. We create the new and the different for our clients and cultivate innovation. Sounds like you? Make it happen and be part of Munich Re.

- You will work in an environment where we think big: Change and culture are continuously role-modelled. We create and articulate a compelling and ambitious shared purpose, vision and direction. We pave the way towards success and see failure as learning
- You are going to experience that we care & dare: We are empathetic. We know when to lead and know when to let others lead. We attract, grow and coach future leaders
- We communicate in a clear & authentic way: We interact with a positive and humble spirit. We solicit feedback, ask and listen, learn and unlearn
- You will grow with your clients: Whatever our role, we support business, in an efficient and effective way, to create value for our clients. We embrace new ways of working leveraging digitalization to deliver solutions
- Join us, and experience that we lead the way: We have a passion for winning and growing as a team. We inspire people to be capable of joint performance. We create an inclusive environment where different thoughts, generations, cultures and experiences are valued and encouraged

* Munich Re not only stands for fairness with regard to its clients; it is also an equal opportunity employer. Severely disabled candidates will also be prioritised, if equally qualified.
