Intern Pricing Actuary (Life) (m/f/d)*

Actuarial Programming in R

Location
Munich

In the Client Pricing unit we take care of Life insurance in the diverse, exciting and demanding markets of Continental Europe and Israel. The core tasks of the Client Pricing unit include pricing and risk management for reinsurance contracts, biometric studies, data analytics, monitoring, and Solvency II- and IFRS-related matters. The Client Pricing unit ensures a holistic, client-focused team approach together with the Client Management team to effectively support the acquisition and maintenance of reinsurance business in the region. Achieving these goals requires a close cooperation between the Client Pricing unit and a wide range of internal departments (Centres of Competence, Valuation, Accounting, etc.).

Start preferably March 2023 for 4-6 months, part-time possible
